

JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 3 April 1962

1. [] Talked with William Cannon in the Bureau of the Budget, bringing to his attention recent activity on H. R. 7865, the Pinkerton Detective Agency bill. I indicated that some agencies apparently had some concern with proposed new language despite earlier "no comments" by most of the Executive Branch with the approval of the Bureau of the Budget. Cannon indicated a definite interest as a coordinating matter and stated he would be talking with the Department of Justice on this.

2. [] Bill Darden, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, telephoned saying that Senator Thurmond had asked Senator Russell to see two Cubans tomorrow. Senator Russell would like information on these two men whose names are

3. [] [] called to report on his follow up contact with Selective Service officials on the [] case. [] said that when Selective Service headquarters requested the file on [] young brother, the local board responded by sending both the brother's and [] files. [] contact advised him that a review of the local board's file indicated that the local board appeared disposed to grant young [] 4-A classification on the ground that "the family had already suffered enough." [] contact has been in touch by phone with the head of the local board and prefers to let the local board proceed on its own initiative on the expectation that it will issue the 4-A classification. [] suggests that in advising Representative Ashbrook of this, that he have the family contact him immediately in the event the local board should possibly place [] a 1-A classification.